A. Overview

The Santa Barbara County Housing Data Dashboard is an interactive platform developed by the Santa Barbara County Association of Governments (SBCAG). Its purpose is to centralize and visualize data related to housing development, affordability, availability, and demographic conditions across Santa Barbara County, its jurisdictions, and unincorporated communities. The dashboard integrates multiple datasets from federal, state, and local sources and presents them through interactive visualization, filters, and downloadable datasets.

All dashboard visualizations are built using Microsoft Power BI and are updated annually based on the most current available datasets.

B. Navigating the Dashboard

The dashboard is structured into nine sections. Each section is designed to display interactive, filterable visualizations tied to a specific data source and/or area of interest. Visuals allow users to select by geography (e.g., incorporated cities, Census Designated Places, countywide, or North/South subregions). Some sections are filterable by time, tenure (renter/owner), income level, and other variables.

- Filter Panels (indicated with blue headers) enable multi-select toggles, dropdowns, and filter boxes to refine results across all visuals within a page.

- Geographic Navigation Buttons (outlined in blue) toggle between place-level (CDPs and cities), North/South County, and full countywide views.

- Data Export Buttons (purple) are embedded throughout the tool and allow users to download Excel (.xlsx) files containing raw data, calculated fields, and specific source information.

For complete documentation of field definitions and data logic, refer to the Glossary.
